

JRT NEWSLETTER

JUNE 2021

Joren has been working at JRT for 1 year, first with the HVAC team, now as a PM assistant. He said his work week consists of getting progress tracking up to date on Mondays and depending on where we are on projects he works on contract processing, submittals, change orders, RFI's, fixture counts along with many other things that need done. His work related goal is to learn more about plumbing & HVAC. Joren mentioned one thing he likes about work is the problem solving.

Joren, who is 19, grew up in Battle Ground area with his parents, 6 brothers and 4 sisters. He said he has 9 nieces and nephews & 1 Rottweiler. He enjoys hanging out with friends & doing something he enjoys which includes wrenching on something, dirt biking, wakeboarding, and playing volleyball.

We asked Joren a few questions:

Pet peeves - "when people tell me to do something I was already planning on doing, people not passing in the passing lane, and just people in general."

What phone app does he use the most - "Safari for looking things up"

Bucket list - "Travel to another country and go sky-diving."

Friends/family describe him as - "Tall and quite"

Something unique about himself - "not much but I'm left handed."

Kyl Johnson

Since I started working with Kyl he has been doing an amazing job at Compassion First giving it 110% every day. He has been an asset to have & his concrete skill has come in handy more than once. Kyle continuously strives to improve his skill & knowledge to become a better plumber & I look forward to keep working with him. – Colton Edwards

Kyl always seems to have a good and upbeat attitude. Always has a smile on his face & hard working, JRT is glad he decided to become a plumber – Keith Tapari

PRODUCTIVITY TIP FOR JUNE

Make a job specific insulation schedule & tape a gang box for all the crew to see (this and any other cheat sheets we can make for the crew is a huge time saver)

Thanks Paul Peterson!

Send in any of your ideas that we can share to increase production to Ron Bergmann at 360-903-2742 or ronb@jrtmechanical.com

If your idea is selected in a future newsletter, you will receive $50 in cash.
